SUMMARY

As a recent graduate from two of Nucamp's intensive developer bootcamp tracks, I'm looking for a junior or intro-level web developer position. I'm well versed in React.js, HTML, CSS, and JavaScript and am interested in taking my skillset to the next level by learning from experienced developers in the field that are implementing code-based solutions to real-world problems.

WEB DEVELOPMENT AND PROGRAMMING EDUCATION

Nucamp Developer Bootcamp Program

Full-stack Web Development Bootcamp | March 2020 – August 2020

- A 22-week bootcamp with 16 immersive projects, designed to learn the principles of modern-day web development
- Strong introduction to front-end and back-end development in React, NodeJS and MongoDB
- Created an interactive online bookstore for my final project
    - Developed a CRUD application with a functional shopping cart
    - Coded and collaborated with a partner to implement a design and coding solution
    - Received a certificate of honors for my final project implementation and design

Web Development Fundamentals Bootcamp | August 2020 – September 2020

- A four-week concentrated bootcamp focused on establishing familiarity with HTML, CSS, and JavaScript
    - Culminated in a final project designed around JavaScript gaming algorithms and design

Harford Community College

Basic C++ | Summer 2018

- Learned the fundamentals of programming through the basics of C++, included programming assignments working with variables, arrays, for loops, and data types.

ADDITIONAL EDUCATION

- Bachelor of Science in Homeland Security, University of Maryland Global Campus (2016-2020)
- Associate of Arts & Psychology, Harford Community College (2015-2017)

INTERNSHIP EXPERIENCE

Living Legacy Foundation, Baltimore, MD
